NOTE FROM NEPAL

Dear Ones,

The last few days have been spent in praying, talking, and trying to reconcile people and groups of people that have been estranged for years.

Last Sabbath 2 prominent women in the church here in Nepal were able to weep and reconcile their differences. Since these 2 ladies are strong leader types, Elizabeth was able to begin to share her dream with them (and other Nepali ladies) her goals for Women's Ministry.

There are some "independent" SDA churches in Nepal. The Lord has arranged for us to meet with the SDA personal from the US concerning this problem. They desire that we work with them. We met with a "pastor" of some of these "independent" churches and ironed out some differences. Our Nepal Field president, Pastor Tamsang with the pastor of this area also met with these folks. We explained that a church is not just a building. We also explained that there is a process for a "fellowship" to follow so that they can become an organized Seventh-day Adventist Church. We pledged pastoral support for these fellowships in the form of pastors to do baptisms, communions, weddings, etc. The trouble is people from the US send money to Nepal to build churches. Great, but then someone needs to nurture and develop the interests into a living church family structure.

February 23-25 is a Gospel Outreach workers convention that we are looking forward to.

March 5-11 there is a Church Leadership Training Program sponsored by Laymen's Ministry with a speaker Jan Ross from Amazing Facts. This will be a great blessing to Nepal.

March 8 we hope to move into our house in Kathmandu. We still do not have a visa-but have been told we should not have trouble getting one-either a student visa studying Nepali or a work visa.

March 13-17 is the Literacy Training Program in the far Eastern section of Nepal.

This evening we are having dinner with the Christian Association of this district. Other Christian groups avoid SDAs like the plague-thinking that we are a cult. We pray that we can show them that we are not. Thank you Brookings and Gold Beach for giving us the chance to feel comfortable with other Christian denominations.
Love, Charles & Elizabeth Shultz

The Pastoral Search Committee is optimistic as they consider the pastors that the Conference has suggested. The committee meets again February 22 and asks a continued interest in your prayers as they move through this process.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE:

As a people we hold the Bible in supreme regard as the revealer of God's truth to guide us to salvation. Our love and devotion is rooted supremely in Christ who we worship as our Savior, Creator, Lord and King.

We believe that forgiveness, healing and eternal life are offered freely to all on the basis of what Jesus has already accomplished for us at the cross, and continues to do as He ministers on our behalf in the heavenly sanctuary above. God's mercy and grace are infinite and are received by faith, to prepare a people for Jesus' second coming.

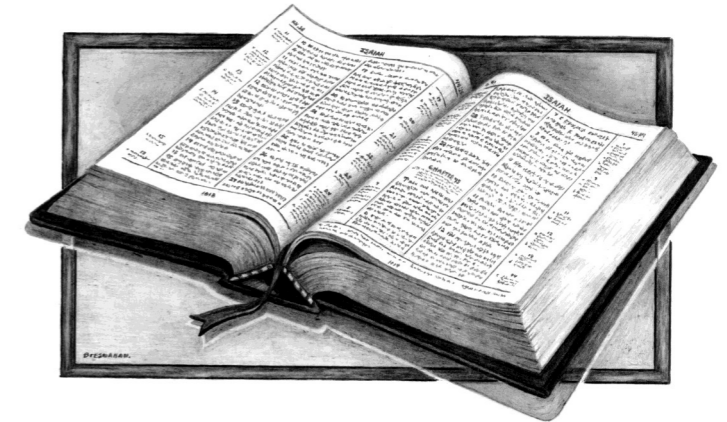

The "New Covenant" provides not only forgiveness for sin, but also God's promise to write His law on our hearts so that our greatest joy will be to do His will. We keep His commandments, not in order to be saved, but because He has already encircled us in His saving arms. His law includes also the fourth commandment Sabbath which invites us to spend a special time of fellowship with God on the seventh day.

We feel compelled as a people to share with a perishing world these messages of God's love in the context of God's final judgment-hour message in Revelation 14. Because of our devotion to Christ we joyfully look forward to His soon return in the clouds of heaven when we shall see our Savior face to face.
