

Here is the Patience of the Saints

- I. What is “patience”?
 - A. The word patience is derived from the Latin word for suffering, and conveys the thought of being under the constraint of someone stronger than you. An example would be an 18-month-old boy being held by his mom when he wants down.
 - B. The quality of being patient, as the bearing of provocation, annoyance, misfortune or pain without complaint, loss of temper or irritation. Moses
 - C. The ability or willingness to suppress restlessness or annoyance when confronted with delay. Saul and David

- II. Patience is connected to waiting. Why wait?
 - A. Psalms 39:7 brings out the thought that we don’t really know what we are waiting for. God makes us wait so that we can discover what we really need.
 - B. We wait so that God can teach us. Psalms 25:4&5
 - C. We wait so that we can learn to think less of self and more of others. Romans 15:1-5
 - D. We wait so that we learn how to depend completely upon God. Psalms 145:15&16

- E. We wait so that we can learn how to rest in faith upon God. Psalms 37:7

“The season of distress and anguish before us will require a faith that can endure weariness, delay, and hunger—a faith that will not faint though severely tried. The period of probation is granted to all to prepare for that time.”

The Great Controversy, page 621

- F. Those in the last days who have patience will be able to “possess their souls” (Luke 21:16-19) and exclaim when they see Jesus in the clouds, “Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us; this is the Lord: we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.” Isaiah 25:9
